SYMBOLS OF MESSENGERS COLLECTION

---

Doves are the symbol of love and peace, widely known as messengers of protection. This collection is inspired by the symbol of the "evil" eye that actually protects us against any mischance.

From 3000BC the "evil" eye was mentioned in Ancient Greek texts as well as in William Shakespeare's plays. Surprisingly, the last 10 years the "evil" eye has found its way into the high fashion world. Painted by hand, one by one, they highlight the handmade process by giving the absolute meaning of art. Place them in your home as they will protect you from any misfortune.

TÊTE-À-TÊTE COLLECTION

The game between every pair is distinguished by the bright colors and the words depicted on the statues. Each word represents the hope, strength and freedom that should characterize relationships. Choose your favorite color combination and the word that expresses better your emotional inner self.
